St. Luke's Signature Quilt

In 1937 the members of St. Luke's Anglican Church Women (ACW) decided to make a signature quilt as a fundraiser. For a donation of 10¢, parishioners could write their name in pencil on one of ten squares of fabric. Later their names were embroidered on the fabric squares, which were safely stored for the next seventy-three years! Finally, in August 2010, the fabric "blocks" were incorporated into a beautiful heritage quilt, in time for St. Luke's 150th Anniversary celebrations.

The name or initials of 350 people appear on the quilt, which would have raised a total of $35.00!

Can you find any of your relatives' names?
