Veterans in St. Luke's Cemetery

They shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them, Nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun,
And in the morning
We will remember them.

This Is A Cemetery

Lives are commemorated, deaths are recorded,
families are reunited,
memories made more tangible, and love is undisguised.

Communities accord respect, families bestow reverence, historians seek information, and our heritage is enriched.

Testimonies of devotion, pride and remembrance, carved into stone, to pay warm tribute, to the accomplishments, and to the life –not death – of a loved one.

This cemetery is a homeland, for family memorials,
that are a sustaining source of comfort, to the living.

A cemetery is a history of people, a perpetual record of yesterday, a sanctuary of peace and quiet today.

A cemetery exists because every life, is worth loving and remembering, always.
