Prelude (please be seated)

Welcome and Introduction (The Rev. Daniel Fournier)

Please stand as you are able.

Opening Hymn: CP 276 For All the Saints

(tune: Sine Nomine)

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Invitation to Confession

Priest: St. Paul begins his letter to the Corinthians exclaiming that we are all called to be Saints.
Yet we know that the road to living this call
can be full of mistakes and errors
and we head to places where we follow
self-generated idols instead of the One True God.
We are not alone in these mistakes –
all of those who have come before us
also were plagued with temptation and sin.
Let us come before God,
just as generations of believers have done,
and pray for God's forgiveness and grace.

Silence is kept.

Confession

All: Almighty God,
we have sinned against you
and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past
and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.

Priest: Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Priest: Glory to God in the highest,
All: and peace to God's people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly king,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Priest: May God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: Let us pray.

God of all holiness,
in your realm of glory,
those who are poor now will receive the kingdom
those who are hungry now will be filled,
and those who weep now will laugh and leap in joy.
Strengthen us by this vision,
so that, with the saints before us,
we may bring near your justice and peace;
through Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Lord.

All: Amen.

Please be seated.

The Liturgy of the Word

FIRST READING: DANIEL 7: 1-3, 15-18

Reader: A Reading from the Book of Daniel.

At the end of the reading:

Reader: Word of God, Word of Life.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 149

Response: Sing to the Lord a new song.

Hallelujah! Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
Let Israel rejoice in his Maker;
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. (Response)

Let them praise his Name in the dance;
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
For the Lord takes pleasure in his people and adorns the poor with victory.
Let the faithful rejoice in triumph;
let them be joyful on their beds. (Response)

Let the praises of God be in their throat
and a two-edged sword in their hand;
To wreak vengeance on the nations
and punishment on the peoples; (Response)

To bind their kings in chains and their nobles with links of iron;
To inflict on them the judgement decreed;
this is glory for all his faithful people. Hallelujah! (Response)

The Apostles' Creed

Priest: Let us together profess the faith of our baptisms
as we say:

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again
to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

Sitting, standing or kneeling, as is your custom.

Let us pray with confidence as God's holy people
for the needs of the Church, all families,
and for our world...

IN THE WORLDWIDE ANGLICAN PRAYER CYCLE,
we pray today for The Church of the Province of West Africa, The Most Revd. Dr Cyril Kobina Ben-Smith, Primate. Locally we pray for Anna, our Bishop, and for Diocesan Council and Parish Councils. We also pray for Lutheran Church of the Cross and Pastor Lyndon, and for the Diocese of the Territory of the People, and Bishop Clara Plamondon.

Eternal God, on this Sunday
which commemorates the faithfulness of your saints,
we express gratitude for individuals in our lives
who have demonstrated your kindness
through their witness to Christ.

Today we honour and remember our saints

(read the list of our saints' names here)

and all those named in St. Luke's Book of Saints.

(hold up the Book of Saints)

May their lives inspire us to live our faith,
even during difficult times.

God of guidance,
All: Speak into our lives today.

Loving God,
you keep calling us to care for neighbours in need
and show hospitality to strangers in our midst.
Thank you for your persistent love
which continues to comfort and challenge us.
Open our hearts and our eyes
so that we can see how to offer that love to others
as we follow Jesus' example.

God of guidance,
All: Speak into our lives today.

Living God,
you bring new life to the discouraged
and those facing danger and death.
Thank you for signs of hope which break into this troubled world
and defy the powers that stand against you.
With your Spirit, work for peace in areas of conflict and reconciliation between enemies.
Demonstrate the importance of fostering compassion and mutual respect, even when confronted with anger
and ridicule.

God of guidance,
All: Speak into our lives today.

Creating God, we recognise the value of the natural world and the cycles of nature that support life.
Help us all to understand that it is essential to act responsibly in response to environmental challenges,
maintaining our commitment as stewards of the earth
and advocating for the wellbeing of all living creatures.

God of guidance,
All: Speak into our lives today.

Wise God,
hear us in this time of silence as lay before you
the people and places on our hearts this day:

*A time of silence is kept – 15-30 seconds.
Followed by the names of those we pray for...*

God of guidance,
All: Speak into our lives today.

All these prayers we offer with grateful hearts.
All: Amen.

Invitation and Peace (Please stand as you are able.)

Priest: The table of bread and wine is now to be made ready.
It is the table of company with Jesus
and with all those who love him.
It is the table of sharing with the poor of the world,
with whom Jesus identified himself.
It is the table of communion with the earth
in which Christ became incarnate.
So, come to this table, you who have faith
and you who would like to come to know it more.
You who have been to this sacrament often,
and you who have not been for a long time.
You who have tried to follow Jesus,
and you who have failed.
Come. It is Christ who invites us to meet him here.

As we prepare to come to the table
let us exchange a sign of peace with one another.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All: And also with you.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Offertory Hymn: CP 284 Blessed Feasts of Blessed Martyrs

(tune: Holy Manna)

The Preparation of the Table

Prayer over the Gifts

Priest: Holy and mighty God,
we give you thanks for the triumph of Christ
in the lives of all his saints.
Receive all we offer you this day,
and help us, like them, to run our course with faith,
that we may come to your eternal kingdom.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

[The Book of Alternative Prayer, The Anglican Church of Canada, 1985. Eucharistic Prayer 3]

Priest: May God be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Priest: Blessed are you, gracious God,
creator of heaven and earth;
in the multitude of your saints
you have surrounded us
with so great a cloud of witnesses,
that we, rejoicing in their fellowship,
may run with patience the race that is set before us,
and together with them receive the crown of glory
that never fades away.
Therefore with angels and archangels
and with all who have served you in every age,
we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All: Holy, holy, holy, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full, are full of your glory.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest! (x2)
Blessed, blessed, blessed, blessed is the one coming in the name, the name of our God.
Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest! (x2)
[From: St. Aidan Setting; John Bell, The Iona Community]

Priest: We give thanks to you, Lord our God,
for the goodness and love
you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people;
in your Word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh,
Jesus your Son.

For in these last days you sent him
to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil,
and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us
out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness,
out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over
to suffering and death,
a death he freely accepted,
our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you,
he broke it, and gave it to his disciples,
and said, "Take, eat:
this is my body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine;
and when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them,

and said, "Drink this, all of you:
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Whenever you drink it,
do this for the remembrance of me."

All: Therefore, Father, according to his command,
we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

and we offer our sacrifice
of praise and thanksgiving
to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation,
this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God,
to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts,
that they may be the sacrament
of the body of Christ
and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice,
that we, made acceptable in him,
may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time,
reconcile all things in Christ,
and make them new,
and bring us to that city of light
where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
the firstborn of all creation,
the head of the Church,
and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father,
now and for ever.

All: Ameni, ameni, amen, amen, amen, ameni. (repeat)
[From: Young men; Christ the New Man Parish, Ga-Rankuwa, South Africa; GIA Publications, Inc.]

The Lord's Prayer

Priest: In the words that our Saviour taught us, we pray:

All: Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us our sins
 as we forgive those who sin against us.
 Save us from the time of trial,
 and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory are yours,
 now and for ever.
 Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
 have mercy on us. (twice)
 Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world:
 grant us peace, grant us peace, grant us peace.
[From: St. Bride Setting; John Bell, The Iona Community]

Special Thanks to the Setup and Kitchen Crew for the Celebration Sunday Lunch: Rebecca Ford, Hailey Just, Sam Sayers, Aanika White, Dexter Fyfe, and Jesse Charmley. They

Thanks so much for your help. Homemade baking is always greatly appreciated!

Sunday Coffee Times – We are pleased that Rebecca Ford is able to do our set up and cleanup for Sunday coffee times. We are paying Rebecca $50/Sunday to look after coffee times for us, an expense we didn't put into this year's budget. If you are able to make an extra donation in your envelopes and note that it is for coffee time that would be helpful. Could you pay for one time ($50) or two Sundays ($100) or maybe even a whole month ($200)? Thank you for your donations to date. You have paid for 5 Sundays so far!

The Shelbourne Community Kitchen is Seeking Reusable Grocery Bag Donations – The Pantry Team is seeking donations of reusable grocery bags to be used in their Pantry Program. Clean bags can be dropped in the Shelbourne Community Kitchen baskets in the church or the hall and we'll deliver them to the Kitchen.

Calling all Gardeners – If you are dividing plants now while you are doing your fall cleanup, we would love some drought resistant, deer-proof plants for St. Luke's Memorial Garden and the front border. Perennial herbs would work well as would other plants which are drought resistant and deer-proof. If you have plants to donate, please contact Barb Prescott (communications@stlukecedarhill.ca) or Julie Forster (4sterja@gmail.com). A big thank you as well to Julie for all the work she has been doing in the front border along the road and the Memorial Garden.

Purdy's Chocolates Fundraiser – Cynthia Blackburn, a member of Pacific Edge Chorus, a Sweet Adeline choral group, is raising funds for the Chorus through the sale of Purdy's Chocolates. The cost for the chocolates is the same as the store prices, but the Purdy's gives the Chorus a percentage of the sales. Cynthia has the catalogue for you to look at to order your favourites. For more information, please speak to Cynthia Blackburn after church or call her at 250-478-8100.

Pastoral Statement from the Primate and Metropolitans of the Anglican Church of Canada concerning the Anglican Communion

In recent days, primates of the Global Anglican Future Conference announced their decisions to leave the Anglican Communion. In response to this, we, the Primate and the Metropolitans of the Anglican Church of Canada, reaffirm the Solemn Declaration of 1893 found in the (Canadian) Book of Common Prayer:

We declare this Church to be, and desire that it shall continue, in full communion with the Church of England throughout the world, as an integral portion of the One Body of Christ composed of Churches which, united under the One Divine Head and in the fellowship of the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, hold the One Faith revealed in Holy Writ, and defined in the Creeds. (BCP 1959/1962, viii)

We reaffirm the four Instruments of Communion: the Lambeth Conference, the Anglican Consultative Council, the Primates' Meeting, and the primatial See of Canterbury with its people, clergy, and its Archbishop.

We reaffirm the historic Anglican appeal to Scripture, Reason, and Tradition.

The practical and theological question before us is this: Can communion with the Risen Christ contain conflict, so that conflict and disagreement lose their power to divide? We believe the answer to this question is a resounding “YES” because this has been borne out many times in Anglican experience and intuition from the Reformation to the present time.

The Anglican Church of Canada looks forward to participating in the next gathering of the Primates’ Meeting, the next meeting of the Anglican Consultative Council, and the next Lambeth Conference. We rejoice in the appointment of Bishop Sarah Mullally as the next Archbishop of Canterbury and will warmly welcome her to Canada after she is installed in 2026.

With steadfast faith and joyful hope,
The Most Reverend Shane Parker,
 Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada
The Most Reverend David Edwards,
 Metropolitan of Canada
The Most Reverend Anne Germond,
 Metropolitan of Ontario
The Most Reverend Gregory Kerr-Wilson,
 Metropolitan of Northern Lights
The Most Reverend John Stephens,
 Metropolitan of British Columbia and Yukon
